WHITE BOY ACQUITTED.
Coroner's Jury Does Not Hold Him Responsible for Shooting a Negro.
Springfield, Ohio, April 18.—Leslie Peters, the 18-year-old boy who Monday night shot and killed Ralph Burns, a negro, in defense of his own life, was acquitted by a coroner's jury yesterday.
The fact that no more arrests of the mob leaders are expected to be made until the special grand jury gets through with its secret session has quieted the people.
Sheriff Horner sent out a dozen deputies armed with 20 or so warrants still unserved, while in the criminal court the grand jury called together under instructions to indict the mob leaders was begun. Monday night the militia had camped all about the jail, nearly a mile from the public square in the center of the city, and yesterday at both of these points the soldiers were especially alert.

FRANKLIN BICENTENNIAL.

Four Days' Celebration Opened in Philadelphia Last Evening.
Philadelphia, April 18.—The four days' celebration here of the two hundredth anniversary of the birth of Benjamin Franklin was formally opened here last night, by the reception of delegates from societies and institutions of learning in all parts of the world.
The celebration is in charge of the American Philosophical society for promoting useful knowledge, founded in 1743. Besides the reception of delegates and invited guests formal addresses of felicitation from societies and educational institutions in Europe and America were read, and Andrew Carnegie, lord rector of the University of St. Andrews, conferred the degree of doctor of laws upon Miss Agnes Irwin, dean of Radcliffe College, who is a great granddaughter of Benjamin Franklin.
George McAllister, a farmer of Enosburg, who tapped 150 maple trees at the beginning of the sugar season has made 150 pounds of sugar and some maple syrup, thus averaging nearly three pounds and a half to a tree. This is the largest yield per tree yet reported in that vicinity.

ONE OBJECTION.

Was Made to Granting of a License in Burlington.
Burlington, April 18.—One protest was filed yesterday with the board of license commissioners to the granting of a license. This same protest has been filed every year since the license law was passed. C. A. Wahlstrom made an application for a license at Crescent Beach Inn, and the Queen City Cotton company objected on the ground that it would be detrimental to their employees. A. G. Whittendore appeared for the company and E. M. Horton for Mr. Wahlstrom. The matter is now in the hands of the commissioners.

Lack of Confidence Makes the Heart Grow Weak

We would not tie ourselves to two of the best garment houses in New York unless we had confidence in their merchandise. We are trying to build up in your minds as much confidence in our goods as we have in what we buy by only having what will prove to you in wear to be the very best that your money can buy.

- GARMENTS
While we are writing this advertising Mr. Morse is in New York buying garments that will be expressed at once.
Our Easter Garment business last week was so large that to serve you as well this week it was necessary for us to have new garments on the way at once. These will be all new, just off the cutting boards, brim full of the latest tailoring.
- WHITE GOODS
Our White Goods sale, advertised last Thursday and Friday, closes this week Saturday. Here are values that will not appear later.
Our specials in White Mercerized Cloths are finding ready purchasers.
India Linons at 10c, 12 1/2c, 15c and 18c, being from 2c to 3c per yard under price, are selling fast for children's dresses. The best seller and the most popular one is the 12 1/2c grade.
- TABLE DAMASK
Damask, advertised in our White Sale, should interest users of these goods. Restaurants and hotels could save by a purchase of these numbers.
A 70-inch very heavy Bleached Damask for 62 1/2c. (Worth every cent of 75c.)
72-inch Double Damask, a cloth that will wear the value of all that it originally sold for, $1.50, now in this sale for $1.19.

If you are bothered about the wear or kind of Gloves that you want come here. The chances are that we can please you.

NEW RAIN COATS

Spring weather is always uncertain—cool today, raining tomorrow and sunshine the next day. Your Winter Overcoat is a burden two-thirds of the time. To meet all conditions own a Cravenette, an ideal and stylish rain-or-shine overgarment. We've genuine Cravenette Coats in different weights and fabrics. The waterproofing does not injure the fabric or its usefulness for sunshine. All sizes, with price range from $10.00 to $25.00. A Rain Coat is the best wardrobe investment you can make. You're safe in buying here.
